Members Code of Conduct

1. Regardless of their personal viewpoints, members shall not speak against, or in any way underline Board or general meeting solidarity once a decision has been made.
2. Members shall avoid, in fact and in perception, conflict of interest and shall disclose to any of the board of directors, in a timely manner, any possible conflicts of interest.
3. Any decisions made in annual general meeting (AGM) cannot be changed by the board of directors.
4. Other gatherings and monthly meetings are not considered to be AGMs and decisions made during such meetings are under the board of directors' discretion and can be changed.

5. Member's contributions to discussions and decision making shall be positive and constructive.
6. Members' interaction in meeting shall be courteous, respectful and free of animosity.
7. Members shall adhere to the Board's governance policies.
8. Members shall participate in events and support the society in ways other than attending the meetings.
9. Members shall not attempt to exercise individual authority or undue influence over the Board.
10. Being a TCICS Member is a voluntary work; no members should expect any financial compensation for such service.
